HAMILTON WINS EASY VICTORY

Buff and Blue Has Easy Time With Scarlet, and Decisively Defeats Old Rivals.

SCORE IS 11 TO 1

The Buff and Blue baseball team scored its first victory of the season Friday by defeating St. Lawrence 11–1. The game was most one-sided. Captain Pritchard's men hit Sullivan of St. Lawrence freely. Gifford of Hamilton pitched a four-hit game and helped win his own game by knocking out a triple in the fourth. He received great support and at no time was in danger.

Hamilton started things with a rush in the first inning. Moffat walked and Campbell bunted, reaching first on an error. Clark singled to left scoring Moffat and Campbell. Clark reached third on Pritchard's sacrifice hit, and scored on Cowan's single to center. Three more runs were secured in the fourth when May reached first on an error. Cowan's sacrifice hit brought May to third. Davis walked and Gifford tripled to center field, scoring May and Davis. Gifford then scored on Moffat's single.

In the seventh, Moffat was hit by pitched ball and took first. Campbell reached first on an error and Moffat went to third. Clark hit safely to center scoring Moffat and Campbell. Pritchard hit to third and reached first safely. Lawler walked. Davis knocked out a two base hit scoring Pritchard and Lawler.

St. Lawrence made their single tally in the ninth when Colon hit safely and scored on Osgood's two-bagger. The visitor's infield was very weak, making many errors. Colon was St. Lawrence's best bat, while Gifford, Davis, and Clark starred for Hamilton. Moffat made a great catch in the fifth. The score follows:

SENIOR CLASS GATHERS FOR TERRIFIC BULL SESSION

Affair Last Monday Night Was a Smashing Success — Complimentary Elections Held.

One of the most successful affairs held on the Hill this season was the Senior Party in Silliman Hall last Monday night. About fifty members of the Senior Class and members of the Faculty gathered together for one of the last "bull sessions" that the members of this class will have before going out into the world.

Mr. Joseph Rudd, '90, a Trustee of the College, gave an interesting and instructive business talk in which he stated some helpful tips for the Seniors to consider when they are out of college. This was followed by a most entertaining talk by Dr. Chase.

The novelty of the evening's entertainment was the flashing on the screen of snapshots of class stunts throughout the four years. Also, a number of amusing prophecies in the form of pictures were shown.

Interesting talks were then given by Dr. Ferry and Dr. Dale, followed by short informal speeches by Campbell, Kaiser, Keehn, Holler, Harper, and Ballot. A vote was taken by the class on various subjects with the following results: Biggest grafter, Mathewson; biggest "bull-shooter", Holler; laziest man, Hutchens; biggest optimist, Fry; biggest pessimist, McVay; greatest parlor snake, Barry; biggest souper, Griffith; Beau Brummel, Peck; biggest crabber, Cowan. The evening's entertainment was closed with the singing of Carissima.

APPOINTMENTS MADE FOR MC KINNEY PRIZE DEBATE

The following men have been appointed by the Faculty as eligible to compete in the McKinney Prize Debate: Edmund Randolph Finegan, Franklin Clark Fry, Grant Keehn, Joseph Brown Rodgers, Allen Eaton Throop, and John Dehn Van Kennen. The proposition will deal withh government ownership of the anthracite coal mines. The final wording, however, has not yet been definitely decided upon, but will be given out in the near future by Prof. Marsh. The debate will be held in the Chapel on Thursday, June 16, at 8 p. m.

The prize debaters are the six seniors whose average standing in argumentation and debate is highest for the entire course. Each debater on his first appearance may speak nine minutes. Notes may not be used. The award is made by a committee of five, not members of the faculty.

"H" CLUB ORGANIZATION PROCEEDS RAPIDLY

Clark, '21, Elected Temporary Chairman—Constitution to be Presented for Acceptance at Next Meeting.

The new "H" Club recently organized on the Hill has appointed Bailey Clark as temporary chairman. A committee has also been appointed to draw up a constitution and by-laws which the Club will vote upon at the next meeting. The committee consists of Seaver, '21, Chairman, R. J. Reeder, '22, Hawkins, '21, Fletcher, '22, and Warren, '23. The constitution is being modelled partly after the Amherst Club, the Syracuse Block "S" Club, and the Yale Club.

The purpose of the Club is to stimulate competition for the "H", to prevent the illegal wearing of letters, to interest men with some athletic ability in secondary schools, and to afford an opportunity for discussion on athletics by the wearers of the "H".

The Club is planning to hold at least three or four meetings each year, one at the close of the fall sports, one at the close of the winter sports, and the last at the end of the spring activities.

The Club will have its first annual banquet as soon as the track and baseball seasons are over. At the banquet the members of the various teams who have qualified will be awarded the "H". Another project which the Club hopes to carry out is the matter of arranging a triangular track meet to be held on the Hill between three of the neighboring high schools. Interscholastic basketball and preliminary football games of several secondary schools will probably be played on the Hill under this plan. The men from the visiting schools will thus have an opportunity to look over the College, and more athletic material will be found on the Hill in the future as a result.

—Students at the University of Michigan receive free medical attention from the University Health Service, which is supported by a portion of the students' annual fees. A staff of five physicians devote their whole time to the health of the students.

FIRST HAMILTONIAN COST FIVE CENTS

Interesting Review Given of Original Hamiltonian—First Volume Contained but Four Pages.

Sixty-three years ago this July the first Hamiltonian was published by the members of the Junior class. The price of the publication was five cents. Think of it! Five cents for the college year book. But this is easily understood when one sees this original Hamiltonian. It was a four-sheet affair—smaller than the present standard size of Life. It contained a great many of the departments such as are carried out in the present edition of the Hamiltonian.

The front page was almost entirely given over to fraternities. At the time of the first book there were five: Sigma Phi, Alpha Delta Phi, Psi Upsilon, Chi Psi, and Delta Kappa Epsilon. Each had a small space in which the members were listed, and at the heads of some, the seal. In the lower right hand corner was a list of the trustees.

The second page was largely editorial, with the names of the faculty heading the page. Two excellent editorials followed these, and then came the "Psalm of Life" by Longfellow, printed by request. Just why this was printed here is a mystery, since there are so many more things concerning the College that might have been placed here. The remainder of the page was devoted to the names and residences of the graduating class and to the class honors.

The third page was given over entirely to the two literary societies, the Union and the Phoenix, and the Society of Christian Research, corresponding to the present Y. M. C. A. On the back page were listed the competitors for the various prizes and the program of public exercises during commencement week. The college library was quoted to contain 3860 volumes. Such was the make-up of the first Hamiltonian, in no way pretentious, but containing much important information.

However, the entire paper was absolutely void of athletics, humor, or society. By the fifth number a few advertisements managed to break into print. This was quite different from the present day conditions when advertisements are an essential part of the book. During the Civil War, the price of the book increased, and continued to do so as years went by, until it reached the present standard.

In addition to the Hamiltonian, published by the Junior class, a small booklet, corresponding to the present catalogue, was gotten out by the Senior Class. Each fraternity had a separate department similar to those now used in the Hamiltonian. The present Hamiltonian is practically an outgrowth of this catalogue and the small four-sheeted paper of the 60's.

HON. WARREN I. LEE, '99, SPEAKS IN UTICA

Hon. Warren I. Lee, '99, of Brooklyn, was the speaker at the annual meeting of the Utica Chamber of Commerce at the Hotel Utica on Wednesday evening, April 27.

The invitation was extended some time ago but definite acceptance by him was delayed pending the necessity of rearranging important engagements. Mr. Lee, now Congressman from the Brooklyn Sixth District, is a native of Westmoreland who settled in Brooklyn a number of years ago after his admission to the bar, and is now playing a very important part in public affairs in the metropolis and the nation's capital. For several years he was a member of the State Legislature, serving in the Assembly, and later was the deputy state controller under Controller Travis. He resigned the latter position to return to the practice of law in Brooklyn.

Later he was elected to the House of Representatives from the Sixth New York District on the Republican ticket, scoring a victory by a plurality of 26,000 votes. His Republican predecessor in this district received a plurality of 250 at his election. This fact indicates the tremendous popularity of Congressman Lewis in his district and shows the great strides this son of Hamilton is making in public life.

TENNIS TEAM FACES THREE HARD GAMES

Colgate, Williams, and Union on Buff and Blue Schedule for Next Week—First Match on Local Courts Wednesday.

The tennis team faces the hardest week of the season in the three matches which are to be played next week. The season opens here Wednesday afternoon when the Buff and Blue racket wielders meet Colgate. Little is known of the Maroon team this year. Vincent and MacLaughlin have left college, but reports from Hamilton state that there is very good freshman material in the University. Captain Reed, last year's number four man, and last year's manager, Calkins, are both on the team and are good players.

Thursday the team leaves for a two-day trip to Williamstown and Schenectady. With the exception of Syracuse, Williams is undoubtedly the hardest team Hamilton will meet this year. Captain Chapin was runner-up in the Junior National Tournament last year, being defeated for the cup by Vincent Richards of Fordham. Union has three of her last year's men back, including Captain Wilbur.

The Buff and Blue team is greatly handicapped by the loss of "Stan" Welsh, '23. Welsh was rated fifty-third in the national ratings for 1920 and is at present playing number one on the University of Southern California team.

The probable team for Wednesday and for the week-end trip will be: Captain Coupe, Getman, Barron, and Acebron or Fitzgerald. These will play in the above order.

Manager Mulford again requests that the men in college keep off the courts when they are wet. As the tennis players in college know, the courts are in none too good condition because several tracks were made on them during the last rain. Footprints are very difficult to repair as the college does not possess a roller sufficiently heavy to pack new clay firmly. A new system is to be inaugurated whereby signs will be put up on the courts when they are not to be played on, and the nets will be taken down. It is hoped that the men will cooperate in this, both for their own benefit, and for the sake of the home matches this spring.

Keep Off the Grass

With the Spring there comes the tendency to do as little work as possible, and to do that little in the shortest and quickest way. We all feel the symptoms. It is generally termed Spring Fever.

This tendency to short-cut is shown in a very obvious and a very unsightly way on the campus. Every spring there appear in various sections of the campus certain paths or short-cuts across the grass that are nothing more nor less than blemishes on the beauty of the Hill.

Ranking only second to them in disfigurement are the imposing little barricades such as were erected last year when these paths began to appear.

We do not want a flock of "Keep Off the Grass" signs staring us in the face from all corners of the college grounds. There is only one way to prevent this: by keeping off the grass in the places where these short-cuts tend to occur until the young grass has had a chance to get a start.

A little proper care now is all that is needed.

Spice o' Life

ROMANTS

A simple stude of Hamilton
Once loved a girl with fervor.
But she became a nuisance for
She made him, slave-like, serve her.

So when this stude was in a fix,
Upon some luckless brother
He'd shift his happy task of love.
(She'd got to be a bother.)

One day, while passing by her house,
He felt constrained to call her.
He oped his mouth, said, "What's the use?"
Let John Emanuel Holler.

A circus came. He took her there.
Dense throng—he couldn't mark her.
He slipped her to a fellow stude—
"Walt, take her out and Parker.

This stude told nothing but the truth,
So when he wished to weave her
A fishy tale, he'd back right out,
And let Charles H. (de) Seaver.

Like wandering sheep the girlies go,
And this girl did that stunt. Her
Own sweet self she lost afar.
He scoffed, "Let Frankie Hunter."

This stude of ours would never swear,
But when her absence thrust her
Into the whirlpool of his thoughts,
He'd smile when Charlie Custer.

When she came home, hysterical,
It took some time to calm her.
His naughty girl had come at last,
So he let Freddie Palmer.

Harry: "I dreamt I died last night."
Larry: "What woke you up?"
Harry: "The heat."
—Virginia Reel.

He (walking by a graveyard): "Wouldn't it be ghastly if all the dead people here came to life again?"
She (yawning): "No, indeed. I wish one of them would."
—Punch Bowl.

The Misogynist: "Away with women!"
The Would-Be Lizard: "Wish I had it." —Lord Jeff.

He loves her—for all he's worth.
She loves him—for all he's worth.
—Judge.

No college man is as good as he tries to make his professor believe he is, nor as bad as he tells his girl he is.—Jester.

Fancher (to Kelly, who is peering out of the window): "I can't compete against that noise outside. What is it, baseball, football, or what?"
Kelly: "That's just what I was trying to find out."

He: "Um?"
She: "Um."
Both: "UMM!"

Burns: "Well, professor, I'll have to bring my girl to class if you don't cut us Saturday."
Super: "Don't bring in family affairs, Burns."

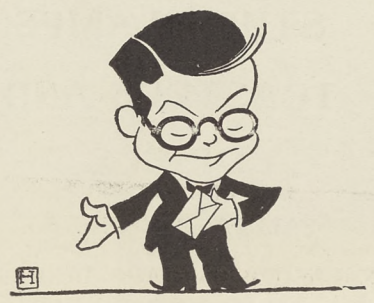
We got you, Steve!!

WE have always yearned to run a newspaper "column"—just sit back and publish other people's contributions. And here "Steve" comes across with a contributed advertisement, and saves us some work. He keeps his name and address a secret—but good work, Steve, say we. "You satisfy."



THREE YEARS ago.
* * *
I TRIED a cigarette.
* * *
THAT I'D seen advertised.
* * *
AND I didn't like it.
* * *
NOT A tall, not a tall.
* * *
YESTERDAY I ran short.
* * *
AND HAD to sponge.
* * *
AND ALL I could get.
* * *
WAS A Chesterfield.
* * *
NOW I didn't fancy.
* * *
A CHESTERFIELD.
* * *
FOR, SAYS I.
* * *
WASN'T THAT the kind.
* * *
I TRIED and passed up.
* * *
THREE YEARS ago?
* * *
BUT ANYHOW I took one.
* * *
AND NOW I know.
* * *
MY BIG mistake.
* * *
FOR ALL the while.
* * *
I SMOKED it.
* * *
I FOUND myself.
* * *
SAYING, "BY golly.
* * *
THEY DO satisfy."
* * *
"STEVE."

STEVE took no chance at all. "Satisfy" is in the Chesterfield blend—sure thing. No use looking anywhere else for "Satisfy" either, because the satisfy-blend is a secret—it can't be copied.

Carpe Diem

Carpe Diem hereby welcomes our fair guests—long may you wave! You're the best looking, the best dancing, the most stupendously wonderful girls that have been on the Hill in three long months. So we're doggone glad to see you and wish you could stay longer, only we can't afford it. However, you will be the subject of conversation for the next six weeks. So please observe the following

DON'TS

Don't call the D. K. E. place a barn, or the Beta Kappa lodge a shack. Really, they are fraternity houses, despite appearances.

Don't say the party is immense. It may be a large evening, and elephants are immense, but the camel is not.

Don't wonder why, when a brother makes a break, somebody always says, "He's always saying those things purposely. It's his line, you know."

Don't fail to rave about Sig Hall. And be sure to say, "Doesn't Tom Pope look just like Wallace Reid, only more so, my deah?"

Don't take the E. L. S. line seriously. Those Emerson men are such terrible snakes and so fickle.

Don't, if you're at the Theta Delt House, mistake Terry Howland for a Slimer. To avoid all difficulties, Life hereby announces that Terence is a full Junior.

Don't, and this is the most important caution, say "frat". Set fire to the house, steal the statue of A. Hamilton, or poison the chaperones, but please don't use that word, despised more on this Hill than the famous, "the mecnimum is 60, I'm sorry I've flunked you."

LINES TO EXPECT AT

Chi Psi—"Isn't this a wild party? We always have such awfully wild parties. Don't you admiah the Lodge?"

Psi U—"There's our new cellar—nothing to what it'll be when the house is done, though. No, that isn't the new house, it's a tool shed you see."

Alpha Delt—"Now—" Aw, who can imitate an Alpha Delt line. It'll be highbrow and heavy, so look out.

D. U.—"Oh, yes, ... the athletics. .....Ban Lawler—four letter man. ..... run the college, ... very strong—"

L'ENVOI

Tomorrow you go staggering home, probably carrying somebody else's suit cases. If you've had a good time, you will appreciate the value of a college education. And if you have dragged blind, or something disastrous has happened, then you will realize the beautiful and profound truth of that fine old saying, "There's no place like home". So which ever way you feel about it, you've got to admit your visit was worth something to you.

TYPES OF HOUSE-PARTY GIRLS
(With apologies to Cornell Widow.)

Amateur Type: Thinks the party is "wonderful"; raves about the music, floor, dancing, et al.; thinks her own "man" is the best in the house; wonders where the Phi Beta Kappa House is; usually gets the house fish.

Party Trotter: Has a speaking acquaintance with the whole chapter back to 1913; talks about the Sigma Delt's wild party at Wisconsin; dodges the chaperones as much as possible; friendly to everyone, having been at a party at some time or another with at least five of those present; when discovered in a car about 2 a. m. always has an alibi.

"Sweet Young Thing" Type: Devilish; tries smoking a cigarette—no go; compares all the brethren to distinguished men like Babe Ruth or Jack Barrymore; wants to get up at six o'clock to see the sun rise—"I feel so peppy!"; generally says "frat" and wonders why she doesn't get away big.

Been Here Once Before Type: Raves about the last party continually; awfully friendly with the chaperones; talks about all the crowds and Prom; wants "the same bed that I had before, I'm used to it now"; usually with a fellow other than her first victim.

"The Girl Who Dragged Blind": The gods help her! She deserves a lot of credit; wins or loses, depending on circumstances, the balance usually on the latter side.

COLGATE WINS OPENING GAME

Buff and Blue Nine Unable to Stop Hitfest That Nets Nine Runs.

In the initial game of the 1921 baseball season, Hamilton was defeated by Colgate by the score of 9 to 2. Timely hits and the air-tight pitching by Blume proved to be the undoing of the Buff and Blue nine. Warren, hurling his first game for Hamilton, and incidentally the first game of his career, was erratic and put himself into many holes.

Hamilton drew first blood when Blume walked Moffat, the first man to oppose him. Campbell hit a hot one which was too warm for Fitzgerald to handle, and Moffat took second on the play. Clark sacrificed, advancing both men. Pritchard grounded to Fitzgerald, who threw home catching Moffat, Campbell taking third on the play. Hermann threw wild over second trying to catch Pritchard stealing. Campbell scored, but Pritchard was out trying to make third.

Colgate evened things up in her half of the inning when Gibbs walked, Barnes popped to Davis, Steffen fanned, and Hermann hit to left center scoring Gibbs. The inning closed when Schlenger struck out.

After the first inning the Maroon got two runs in each of the third, fifth, sixth, and eighth frames. Hamilton's only other run came in the fourth inning when Campbell was hit by a pitched ball, took third on a passed ball, and crossed the plate when Fitzgerald muffed Pritchard's grounder to third.

Gifford, who replaced Warren in the seventh, pitched fairly good ball. He struck out two men, but he also allowed two hits, one of which was a triple by Blume.

CENTRAL NEW YORK ALUMNI ASSOCIATION MEETS IN UTICA

Last Tuesday night the Central New York Alumni Association of Hamilton College held a general meeting at the Hotel Martin in Utica. An informal dinner was served and a number of addresses were given. The meeting was held to arouse interest in the endowment campaign which began on Wednesday. Just before the dinner was served, the captains and the members of the teams in the drive met and discussed plans.

There were about sixty members present. Seward Miller, '99, presided. A committee was appointed to draft resolutions upon the death of the late Justice Frederick M. Calder, '82, former president of the Association.

Soper, '67, a member of the Board of Trustees and chairman of the endowment drive; Mr. Pierce, a member of the drive committee; Dr. M. W. Stryker, former president of the College; Theodore L. Cross, '81, of Utica, and John D. Van Kennen, '21.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Rev. John B. Swinnerton, '92, of Oneida; Vice President, Robert B. Fraser, '08, of Utica; Secretary and Treasurer, Leo O. Coupe, '10. These men also constitute the executive committee.

D. T. CLUB TO HOLD DANCE THIS AFTERNOON

This afternoon the D. T. Club will hold a tea dance in the Sigma Phi Hall from three until six o'clock. The tea is the first given by the Club during the spring house party season and, from the number of tickets sold, it will be a decided success. The patronesses will be Mrs. George B. Ogden, Mrs. George Sicard, and Mrs. Winthrop Skerrit. The arrangements for the dance are under the direction of Richard S. Fowler, '23, assisted by Bailey Clark, Damon L. Getman, George C. Morehouse, Jr., and Albert V. Morris, Jr. The Lewis Harmony Orchestra of Albany will play.

FRESHMAN FROLIC AT D. U. HOUSE THIS AFTERNOON

The Class of 1924 will entertain at a tea dance this afternoon from three until six at the Delta Upsilon House. For some time past the first year classes have discussed the possibilities of such an affair, but it has never come to pass until this year. It is an idea that has met much favor on the Hill, and there is no doubt that the Frolic will be a success. The patronesses will be the wives of the faculty. The committee in charge is: J. Lester Albertson, Rexford C. S. Holmes, Charles H. Phelps, Jr., and Richard C. Wood. Music will be furnished by Hartigan of Troy.
